

I am a big advocate of satellite radio. I think that the traffic and weather services that they offer is very valuable. I pay for this service and think that as my representative in congress, that you should support satellite radio the additional services like this that they offer.